

• Day 2 | Technical Workshops

09:00 - 09:15

Review of Day 1

Presenter :

- Mr Hycinth Banseka, DT LCBC

09:15 - 09:30

Expectations for Day 2

Presenters :

- Mr Adrian Morel, World Bank
- Mr Alio Abdoulaye, PIU PROLAC-LCBC

09:45 - 13:00

Session 5 : Operational workshops

Two parallel workshops in separate rooms. Practitioners will be invited to share lessons learned from past and ongoing operations, and exchange on challenges and solutions related to: Infrastructure, mobility, border governance and security and Agricultural development, resilience, and best practices in the Lake Chad region

Workshop 1: Regional integration: infrastructure, mobility, border governance and security

Room A 9:45 – 13:00	Introduces Session, Keynote speaker and panellists (10 min) (Set the stage; give the objectives; expected outcomes/takeaways and order of proceeding)	Prof. Abba Gana Shettima Sociologist, Researcher, University of Maiduguri
----------------------------------	---	--

Introduces Session, Keynote speaker and panellists (10 min) (Set the stage; give the objectives; expected outcomes/takeaways and order of proceedings.)

Prof. Abba Gana Shettima
Sociologist. Researcher,
University of Maiduguri

Presentation (20 min):

Prof. Issa Saibou University of Maroua

Intervention of panellists (30 min) · Typology and states of investments in connectivity facilities
· Connectivity and socio-economic development of communities.
· Risks to regional integration governance issues

- Honorable KATIELLA GASSO ABDOU KATIELLOU, Chef de Canton de Mainé-Soroa
 - Prof. Abubakar Mu'azu, NNGO
 - Mme BEVIA Respa, Animator, President, Women's Associations Connection, and Information Unit
-

Questions and Answers Session (30 min)

All Participants

Group work (30 minutes) 2 groups
I. Problems and challenges. II. Lessons learnt and best practices.
Group presentations or report back (20 mins) Finalise and consolidate session report and key messages (10 minutes)

Group participants

11:00 – 11:30 Coffee break
Poster session by students

Workshop 2: Agricultural development, resilience, and best practices.

Introduces Session, Keynote speaker and panellists (10 min) (Set the stage; give the objectives; expected outcomes/takeaways and order of proceedings. 10 minutes)

Prof. DJANGRANG MAN-NA University of Ati-Chad

Room B 9:45 – 13:00

Presentation (20 min): The Use of Climate Smart Agricultural Practices For Improving Agricultural Resilience In The Lake Chad Basin

Prof. Daniel Gwary Researcher, Director CAZS, University of Maiduguri

Intervention of panellists (30 min) · Importance of the different agricultural systems of the LB
· Challenges for improving agricultural resilience in the LB Case studies of climate smart agricultural development: The Komadugu Yobe; oasis basins; and polders

- Mr. Guéro Maman, Silting Control Project for the Oasis Basins (PLECO) UNDP, Niger
- Mme KHADIDJA HONORINE Ndob, Animator, In charge of women and children's affairs,
- Dr. SALI BOUROU, Coordinator of Agricultural Research Institute for Development (IRAD) Maroua Center
- Dr. Wencelas Conditamde, Principal technical Adviser, LCBC-GIZ project

Questions and Answers
Session (30 min)

All Participants

Group work (30 minutes) 2 groups
I. Problems and challenges. II. Lessons learnt and best practices.
Group presentations or report back (20 mins) Finalize and consolidate session report and key messages (10 minutes)

Group participants

13:00 - 14:00

Lunch Break

14:00 - 17:00

Session 6 : Technical workshop in parallel

Two parallel 3-hour workshops in separate rooms. Practitioners will be invited to share lessons learned from past and ongoing operations, and exchange on challenges and solutions related: Social cohesion and inclusion in the Lake Basin and Climate dynamics and flood risk management, and migration in the Lake Chad basin

Workshop 3: Social cohesion and inclusion in the Lake Chad Basin (Social cohesion as a tool for enhancing trust and peaceful coexistence between communities and peoples, Fighting exclusion and marginalization through participatory community development in the Lake Chad Basin)

Room
A 14:00 -
17.00

Introduces Session, Keynote speaker and panellists (10 mn) (Set the stage; give the objectives; expected outcomes/takeaways and order of proceedings)

Prof. Yayé Dramé
Aïssatou, Université Abdou Moumouni

Presentation (20 mn): Social Cohesion and Inclusion as a Tool for Enhancing Trust and Peaceful Coexistence Between and Among Communities and Peoples of the Lake Chad Region

Hamsatu A. Allamin NNGO/CSO Maiduguri

RESILAC: Experience and lessons learnt (10 mn)

Helène RONCERAY RESILAC coordinator Chad

Intervention of panelists (30 mn) · Social cohesion as a tool for enhancing trust and peaceful coexistence between communities and peoples · Fighting exclusion and marginalization through participatory community development in the Lake Chad Basin; Transitional justice for peaceful community integration

Panel:

- Moussa Tchangari, Alternative citizen space, Niger
- Prof. Ibrahima Umara, Researcher, University of Maiduguri
- MBODOU Seïd, Diplomat/Writer, author of the book “Cross-border terrorism in Lake Chad”, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation
- Pasteur HETECK, Chairman of the Cameroonian Association for Interreligious Dialogue (ACADIR)

Questions and Answers Session (30 min)

All Participants

Group work (20 minutes) 2 groups I. Problems and challenges. II. Lessons learnt and best practices. Group presentations or report

Group participants

back (20 mins) Finalize and consolidate session report and key messages (10 minutes)

 END OF DAYSEE YOU TOMOROWW

Workshop 4 : Climate dynamics and flood risk management, and migration in the Lake Chad basin (Identify recent climate dynamics to understand dry and wet cycles, in order to minimise the effects of drought and utilise flood water)

Room
B 14:00 –
17:00

Introduces Session, Keynote speaker and panellists (10 min)

M. Ousman Baoua National Meteorological Director

Presentation (20 mn): - UCESA plans for consultations on climate migration in the Sahel. Recent flood situation in LCB

UCESA representative : Prof. Florance Sylvestre, Representing IRD in Chad

Film on floods in far north Cameroon (10 min)

Dr Mouadjamou Ahmadou University of Maroua, Cameroon

Panellists :

- Dr Salamatou Abdouramane, University of Diffa
 - Dr Garba Sambo, University of Maiduguri
 - Government of Niger, AGRHYMET, PROLAC/RESILAC
 - Dr. NGUETORA Madjyara, Doctor of Water Science, Consultant
-

Intervention of panellists (30 min) Identify recent climate dynamics to understand dry and wet cycles, in order to minimise the effects of drought and utilise flood water

- Prof. MOHAMAN Arabi, University of Maroua and Head of Division of Territorial Planning and Sustainable Development at the Integrated Development Mission of the Mandara Mountains (MIDIMA)

-
- Questions and Answers Session (30 min) All Participants
-

Group work (30 minutes) 2 groups I. Problems and challenges. II. Lessons learnt and best practices. Group presentations or report back (20 mins) Finalize and consolidate session report and key messages (10 minutes)

15:45 - 16:15

Session 3 : Mapping and enhancing local governance actors' efficiency

- Moderator :
 - Objective :
-